

What You Get for
Your Child Care Dollar

Child Development Centers

Did You Know?

Your Child Care fees are a GREAT value because your child receives the best care.

- ✓ Army centers are inspected more frequently than those licensed off-post
- ✓ Army centers are nationally accredited; most off-post centers are not
- ✓ Military Child Care is cited as “A Model for the Nation” by Congress and national experts
- ✓ Security surveillance equipment to monitor activities
- ✓ Pre-K classes for academic readiness
- ✓ Parent involvement is welcome and appreciated

Your Child Care fees “go further” because the Army covers much of the cost.

- You pay your share and the Army funds the difference
- Fee discounts are available when more than one child enrolls in Child & Youth Programs
- Off-post centers usually charge more for infants and toddlers, supplies, food and field trips

Your Child Care program supports a military lifestyle.

- 220 to 240 hours of full-day care each month
- 10 to 12 hours a day Monday through Friday, typically $2-3 an hour or less
- 44 nutritious meals and up to 22 snacks
- Field trips and physical fitness skills development
- Two weeks of “child care leave” every year
